APPENDIX

IMMIGRANT CATEGORY - DEFINITIONS*

Canada's Immigration Act sets forth three basic classes of admissible immigrants: the family class, Convention refugees, and independent and other immigrants (including assisted relatives).

Family Class

This class consists of certain close relatives sponsored by a Canadian citizen or permanent resident at least 18 years of age and residing in Canada. The Act specifies eight categories of relatives eligible for admission under the family class. Individuals in the family class will not be assessed under the point system, but must meet specified standards. The sponsoring relative in Canada is required to sign a statement promising to provide for the lodging, care and maintenance of the applicant and accompanying dependants, for a period of up to ten years.

Convention Refugees

The refugee class is based on the definition from the United Nations Convention and Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees. Refugees seeking resettlement in Canada are assessed against factors relating to their adaptability to Canadian life and on the amount of settlement assistance available to them in Canada, or are admitted on humanitarian grounds in times of crisis.

Independent and Other Immigrants

This class includes assisted relatives (see below), entrepreneurs, retired persons, those who intend to be self-employed, and others who apply to immigrate on their own initiative at Canadian government offices abroad. Except for retirees, persons in this class are assessed and selected according to the point system.

Assisted Relatives

These are people, other than members of the family class, who have kin in Canada willing to help them get established here. The Immigration Act specifies the categories of relatives eligible to apply under this category. The point system applies.
